Destruction

The paths to a world of eternal torment. Josh Thren chose this way above all others. Marking the universe with his touch of horror. Haunting the existence of all.

Chapter 3 by Colin H

This is what they called Black Magic, the most evil magic that has ever existed. Josh could already feel the black energy running through his veins. He was walking, he knew the path. Two light-robed figures inched toward him. He soon realized who they were. These were 2 Creation Mages. They quickly created magical weapons and ran toward Josh. Josh jumped and made a black ghost blast with his hand, and the two mages became his faithful slaves.

Chapter 4 by SaintSayaka

If only his mother could see him now. If only Camilla hadn't rejected his hand in marriage.

But why rely on "ifs"? Josh could see the two of them. Josh could see the whole damn village if he pleased.

He waved his hands at the two mages. "Find me Camilla Reich and Joanna Thren. Bring them to me."

They nodded, and exited the room without a word. Josh wondered if they were conscious of what they were doing. Josh then realized that he didn't particularly care.

How they would regret denying him of what was rightfully his, though? That, he cared about.
